

What Does Hold Us Together?

First Transatlantic
Social-Ethical Forum

March 27th-29th 2023

at the Catholic Social Institute of the Archdiocese of Cologne in Siegburg

Monday, March 27th

5:00pm Reception Dinner in the KSI (Catholic Social Institute of the Archdiocese of Cologne)

Tuesday, March 28th

7:30am Holy Mass

8:00am Breakfast

9:00am Opening Welcome

9:30-11:00am Session 1: Is There such a Thing as a Solidary Society or a Solidary State? Observations from an American and a European Perspective

11:00-11:30am Coffee Break

11:30-1:00pm Session 1 continues

1:00-2:30pm Lunch

2:30-4:00pm Session 2: Solidarity as a Principle of Catholic Social Teaching

4:00-4:30pm Coffee Break

4:30-6:00pm Session 2 continues

6:00-9:00pm Festive Dinner at invitation of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

Keynotes:

Fr. Dr. Antonius Hamers, Representative of the Catholic Bishops to the Government of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia

Richard Ottinger, International Religious Dialogue, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung

Wednesday, March 29th

7:30am Holy Mass

8:00am Breakfast

9:00-10:30am Session 3: Is There any Space for Solidarity in Free Market Economy – and What Can it Look Like?

10:30-11:00am Coffee Break

11:00-12:30pm Session 3 continues

1:00-2:00pm Lunch

2:00-9:00pm Trip to Cologne

Guided Tour of the Cologne Cathedral

Dinner in a Cologne Brewhouse/Restaurant

9:00pm Return to KSI and Farewell

A Cooperation Event by:

 Katholische
Sozialwissenschaftliche Zentralstelle

 KONRAD
ADENAUER
STIFTUNG

Ordo socialis

 katholisch-soziales institut

We thank for the kind support of the Kardinal-Höffner-Foundation and the Pax-Bank eG Cologne